c. Ref para 4.b: Detachment B now has on hand sufficient mod kits and parts to modify one [ ] for the System VII. Headquarters authorized this modification by cable on 21 September. All J-75 equipped aircraft gave installed a noise suppressor kit (Mod Kit 398) for all ELINT installations. To modify the additional J-75 equipped aircraft to carry System VII will only require minor modification. These modifications will not be made by Lockheed on the additional J-75 aircraft until so authorized by Headquarters. A rough estimate of the cost of this modification is approximately $50.00 per aircraft. If at a later date, it is determined that the System VII is going to be involved in a long range program then Operations will send authorization to Lockheed or to the detachments concerned to modify additional [ ]
